LOUISBURG
FEMALE COLLEGE.
REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., President and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.
Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.
The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.
With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding-pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro, N. C., and circulars will be sent.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1865.

The friends of JONATHAN WORTH, Esq., have requested us to announce, that he will be supported throughout the State at the approaching election, for Governor of North Carolina.

The Papers of the State are respectfully requested to publish.

Jonathan Worth.

Why should Mr. Worth consent to be a candidate for Governor? Why should he oppose his friend Gov. Holden? These questions are asked repeatedly by the "straitest sect" and their papers. Let us briefly reply to them.

First. Mr. Worth and his friends had no good reason to know, so far as we are aware, that Gov. Holden had made up his mind to be a candidate for civil Governor. He nor they had received any such information from him, so far as we know, and had no right to come to such a conclusion as a matter of course. Moreover as none of the Provisional Governors except Brownlow had been candidates for civil Governor, it was natural enough to conclude that the Provisional Governor of this State, would not be. But what if he and they did know that he desired it, were he and they because of their relations to the Governor, under any obligations to favor it? Or does his declaring himself a candidate, oblige the friends of Mr. Worth to withdraw his name? We think not.

Second. The object of the friends of Mr. Worth in bringing him out, or Mr. Worth's consent, argues no unfriendliness to the Governor. We know but little about the matter, or the manner in which Mr. Worth was drawn out. We never advised or urged Mr. Worth to run, but we know that the persons who did so, were influenced by but one motive. They would have been gratified if they could have believed, that the Governor had given entire satisfaction to the people—that in the coming election he could draw out a large vote. They believed to the contrary. They were satisfied that thousands would not go to the polls at all, unless a candidate was run whose record was satisfactory. They found wherever they went, an anxiety upon the subject of the next Governor. Hence their object was to allay this anxiety, by the selection of a man who must be entirely unexceptionable to the true Union men of the State.

Third. It is not true that those who were immediately concerned in securing Mr. Worth as a candidate, went about from one to another, seeking to draw them out. It is very probable that a good many gentlemen were asked and urged to be candidates by different individuals. But it is not true of those who were directly interested in getting out Mr. Worth. But what does it all prove? Does it not show clearly, that these men were not looking for their own promotion, their own advancement? They talked to the Governor's known confidential friends on the subject, which proves the anxiety felt, and the extent of the dissatisfaction which prevailed, and it shows clearly the purpose to secure a tried Union man, known to be such every where, who could unite the vote of the State and bring it out.

We believe that object has been attained. We are sure if the people reflect upon the character, ability, public services, political record, his courtesy and his personal course towards every one, political friend or foe, will see that he is the man to concentrate and unite the people, and to draw out the vote of the State. Moreover, his liberality towards all and his thorough endorsement of President Johnson's administration, give the strongest assurances of his success.

The Convention.

The great length and lateness of the hour at which the session of the Convention was prolonged yesterday, as well as the crowded state of our columns compel us to omit a portion of the very interesting proceedings of the Convention. At the hour of adjournment at 4 P. M. no definite action had been taken upon the question of the war debt. The amendment of Mr. Melver of Mecklenburg, [simply declaring the war debt null] was voted down. The amendment of Mr. Moore of Wake [published some days since] was also rejected.

Mr. Settle's original ordinance acknowledging the just debts of the State, and prohibiting the payment of the debt contracted or incurred in aid of the rebellion passed its second reading. On the third reading an amendment by Mr. Grissom of Granville, referring the second section (the war debt) to the people was adopted, and then reconsidered, when the Convention took a recess until 7 o'clock.

The Sentinel has broken its faith—it has falsified its pledge. It is no friend to President Johnson or his Agent, Gov. Holden, but has done infinitely more damage to the State of North Carolina, by stirring up feuds and inciting discord, in an underhand manner, than any other three prints in the State.—Standard.

The Sentinel has deliberately and intentionally done injustice to Gov. Holden after professing great friendship for him.—Standard.

There is not a word of truth in the above.

Sentinel.

Jonathan Worth was nominated by a sore head faction in the Convention. All the true Union men who desired harmony advised him not to run. But others who wanted office and preferment, sacrificed the harmony of the people, in this solemn hour, for personal aggrandizement.—Standard.

We do not know how many gentlemen of the Convention are particularly responsible for urging Mr. Worth to run, but among the number, we have not heard of one who would accept a judgeship or a senatorship, if offered to them.

"The Sore Heads."

The Court Journal applies the above epithet to the Worth men. They are "sore." They are "sore" of war—"sore" of military, and want civil law. They desire freedom from prescription for political opinion, and a speedy return to the Union of the States. They desire a full vote of the Union strength of the State; which they believe could not be secured otherwise than by the nomination of Mr. Worth.

Let us look at the list of these "sore heads." Take fifty-three from one hundred and twenty, leaves sixty-seven. Hence it is fair to conclude, that a majority of the State Convention are classed among the "sore heads" by the Standard.—Now when we come to add to these, the "sore heads" of the first, second, third, fourth, fifth and seventh Congressional districts—the Moreheads, Gilmer, Grahams, Caldwell, Stans, Tonnies, Adams, Ramsays, Wrights, Hales, McDanns, Mcbanes, Boyds, Smiths, Amis, Bullocks, Eatons, Hawkins, Williams, Alstons, Winston, Clarks, Davis, Haughtons, Taylors, Sharps, and hosts that are coming up from Currituck to Cherokee, it will be enough to astonish the natives. We admonish the Standard not to be alarmed. The friends of Jonathan Worth consider his election as certain. The real character and feelings of the State Convention and the people of the State, are well understood. The supporters of Jonathan Worth may hold up their heads, sore or not sore.

Panic Stricken.

The Standard is evidently frightened—panic stricken. It pours out its bile as it was wont in former days. Abuse, falsehood and vituperation have been its resource always. Let it do its worst. The people of North Carolina understand it. That is enough.

Secession.

The charge that Gov. Holden was ever a secessionist is infamously false. Standard of Oct. 19, 1865.

Of course the writer of the above distinctly recollects what the Governor has said at different times. What does he think of the following, and many others of the same sort?

"We have heard the idea recently expressed that a State has no right to secede from the Union—that there is no help from oppression except by revolution; in other words, that the States are the creatures and dependents of the Federal Government, and of course subject to its physical coercion. Such an assumption, we humbly submit, is unsupported by any testimony derived from the Constitution itself, or from any single circumstance attending its formation or adoption. It is, moreover, as war with all regular ideas of free republicanism government, and of the undoubted independence of the States, as that independence has been practically displayed in their separate organizations since 1787. We hold that as no State could originally have been forced into the Union, none can be forced in, or rather be prevented from going out."—Standard, December 4th, 1850.

"It is sufficient for us to say that we hold to the right of secession as an original pre-existing reserved sovereign right. That whenever the constitution is palpably violated by Congress, or whenever that body fails to carry out the plain provisions of that instrument when required to protect Southern rights, the Union is dissolved and that by a sectional majority."—Standard, Jan. 1851.

"As soon as Lincoln called for troops to make war on the South, we denounced him as a usurper, and turned our back on the old Union without end. We did this, too with the most entire consistency, for we had always held the States had a right to secede for cause."—Standard, Oct. 30th, 1861.

Fifth Congressional District.

We are authorized to say that Col. Bedford Brown and Lewis Hanes, Esq., will address the citizens of Guilford at Greensboro, on Monday, the 30th day of October; the citizens of Forsyth at Winston, on Wednesday, the 1st of November; the citizens of Davidson at Lexington, on Saturday the 4th of November; and the citizens of Randolph at Asheboro, on Tuesday the 7th day of November.—Standard.

Col. Brown will encounter some opposition from Mr. Lewis Hanes, of Davidson County, but we have no doubt of his election by a large majority.—Standard.

No doubt the old Colonel will have some opposition from Mr. Hanes, and precisely enough to beat him badly.

"I shall vote for Jonathan Worth, Esq., for Governor."

So says Mr. Lewis Hanes, but yesterday the Private Secretary to the Governor.—Standard.

Why does he support Mr. Worth? Let the Standard ask him?

While conducting a religious paper, the Editor of the Sentinel siled his garments by publishing an army address, inciting a mob of soldiers upon the Standard office and denouncing the Union men of the State as traitors. The man who wrote the address is now assisting to edit the Sentinel, and by the way is a very weak vessel. The Sentinel continues the onslaughts upon Gov. Holden which it then made. "Can the leopard change his spots or the Ethiopian his skin?"—Standard.

The publication of the address alluded to was at the urgent request of gentlemen, and we published it, believing it had no political or partisan design. It is not true that the man who wrote the address is now assisting to edit the Sentinel. Nor is it true that any one exists as we stated distinctly, that we expected assistance when we commenced the publication of the semi-weekly and weekly Sentinel. That will not be until about the first of January. The author of the address was the lamented and gallant Col. Garrett of Bertie, who died of wounds received in battle. "Can the leopard change his spots or the Ethiopian his skin?" No! the Standard fully illustrates the truth of holy writ.

Provisional Governor Sharkey, of Mississippi, has issued a proclamation stating that the testimony of negroes will be received in the courts on the same footing as that of the whites.

"We are going home" to the old mansion of the Union. President Johnson stands in the door to shake our hand and give us a hearty welcome. Shall we ride the horse President Johnson gave us, or shall we swap him off for another. This is no time for swapping horses. The President will want to see his old nag—he prefers him as we all know. No time now to swap off the President's horse.—Standard.

We object positively to calling our Provisional Governor a horse. Jonathan Worth is every inch a man, and his friends have not put him on a race track to be run against a horse. He was announced as a candidate for Governor, before it was certainly known that he would have opposition. Our Governor is a man, and a clever man to his friends too, but the people like Jonathan Worth's record better. That's all.

North Carolina State Convention.

NIGHT SESSION.

October 18th, 7 o'clock, P. M.

Mr. Lyon, of Granville, introduced a resolution that hereafter, speeches should be limited to thirty minutes.

Mr. Phillips, of Orange.—An ordinance providing compensation to the sheriffs for holding elections for delegates to this Convention.

Under a suspension of the rules, the ordinance was passed.

The resolution of Mr. Lyon was taken up and amended by Mr. Logan, of Rutherford, so that no delegate could speak but once on each question, and only fifteen minutes, was adopted.

Mr. Buxton, of Cumberland, from the Committee on "Lost Records," reported that the Provisional Governor would do all that was in his power to have them found and restored to the Capitol. The letter book of the Governor had been carried off by the military authority.

Mr. Wright, of New Hanover, from the Committee to whom was referred the petition of Mr. T. J. Hughes, reported as follows:

The Committee to which was referred the petition of Theodore J. Hughes, and the matters therein embraced or referred to, have considered the same, and endeavored to make such an investigation of the facts connected with the agency of the petitioner referred to in the report of the Public Treasurer as would enable your committee satisfactorily to report to the Convention; but the absence of certain vouchers and other testimony desired by the petitioner has induced the committee to defer the investigation to a future time.

The statements in connection with the agency of the petitioner embodied in the report of the Public Treasurer are based on and sustained by the returns and reports which have been submitted by the petitioner to the Public Treasurer, up to the time of the meeting of the Convention.

The petitioner however, insists that from sickness and other causes, he had up to that time been prevented from responding to the different applications made to him in this connection by the Public Treasurer, as fully as the nature of the various transactions, connected with this agency demanded, and the accompanying communication recently addressed by the petitioner to the Public Treasurer, was submitted to the committee as embodying a full exposition of the acts and doings of the petitioner in execution of the orders and duties incident to his said agency.

The committee believing it proper that the Convention should be advised as to progress made in the matters referred to the committee, have instructed the undersigned to make this report.

WM. A. WRIGHT, Chm'n.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance in relation to the late officers of the State, came up on its third reading, as the unfinished business.

The question was on the substitute of Mr. Moore of Wake, to the substitute of Mr. Conigland of Halifax. These substitutes are as follows:

By Mr. Conigland, AN ORDINANCE IN RELATION TO THE LATE OFFICERS OF THE STATE.

Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the Judges of the Superior Courts of law and equity in this State, who were holding and exercising office before and on the 26th day of April last, (except where vacancies have since occurred, or may occur by death or other cause, according to the laws of the State) are hereby declared to be still holding their respective offices, by the original tenor thereof, with power and authority to act therein in all respects as they had and held such power and authority, on and before the said day, with the like salaries which they then received. Provided however, That each of said Judges has been pardoned under the proclamation of his Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, of the 29th of May last, commonly called the "amnesty proclamation," or shall be specially pardoned thereunder before the 1st day of December next.

Be it further ordained, That the thirty third chapter of the Revised Code, organizing a Supreme Court, is hereby declared to be in full force and effect.

Be it further ordained, That all the offices existing in this State, on the said 26th day of April last, and not in this ordinance hereafter provided for, are hereby declared to be vacant, and the General Assembly, at its first session hereafter held, shall cause the same to be filled in the manner prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State, except when such offices shall have been filled under ordinances of this Convention. And all persons who may be thus appointed to fill said offices, shall enter upon the performance of the duties thereof whenever the Provisional Government of this State is at an end. Provided, however, That persons who held said offices on 26th day of April last, shall not be hereby released from any liability incurred by them for any act done under color of office, before the ratification of this ordinance.

Be it further ordained, That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this ordinance, are hereby repealed.

Mr. Moore's substitute.

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING VACANT ALL THE OFFICES OF THE STATE EXISTING ON THE 26TH DAY OF APRIL 1865.

Whereas, No person elected or appointed to any office under the State, can rightfully claim any vested interest therein, until he shall have taken the oath to support the constitution of the United States, as prescribed in that instrument, and also an oath of office; and whereas those officers who did take such oath, and thereafter took an oath to support the constitution of the Confederate States did thereby incur the penalty of forfeiting their offices, and are incapable of resuming the duties thereof to which they were respectively elected or appointed without again taking the like oath.

And whereas, It is in the power of the Convention to allow or deny to such persons the privileges of again qualifying themselves anew by taking such oaths, and the Convention deems it expedient after so great a popular convulsion as happened amongst the people of this State, that all such offices should be filled anew by persons hereafter chosen or appointed.

Be it therefore ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That no officer of this State, who may have taken an oath of office to support the Constitution of the Confederate States, shall be of holding under the State any office or place of trust or profit, which he held when he took such oath to support the constitution of the Confederate States, until he may be appointed or re-elected to the same, and all the offices held by such persons are declared vacant.

Mr. Moore's ordinance was agreed to as a substitute for Mr. Conigland's.

Mr. Conigland addressed the Convention in opposition to the substitute.

Mr. McDonald of Moore, replied.

Mr. Phillips of Orange advocated the adoption of the original ordinance introduced by Mr. Thompson of Bertie.

Mr. Dick of Guilford supported the substitute of Mr. Moore.

The substitute of Mr. Moore was agreed to.

The question recurring upon the ordinance as amended, Mr. Caldwell of Burke demanded the ayes and nays, and it was sustained and the ordinance as amended was passed. Ayes 66, nays 12.

Those who voted in the affirmative are, Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Allen, Baines, Baker, Barrow, Beam, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Boyden, Bradley, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Bryan, Burgin, Caldwell of Burke, Caldwell of Guilford, Conigland, Farches, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Gwinn, Grissom, Harris of Guilford, Harris of Rutherford, Haynes, Henry, Hodge, Jackson, Jones of Davidson, Jones of Henderson, Jones of Rowan, Joyce, Kelly, Kennedy, King, Logan, Love of Chatham, Love of Jackson, Lyon, McCauley, McCleese, McKay of Harnett, McDonald of Chatham, Melver, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, Melroe, Moore of Wake, Nicholson, Norbett, Odum, Patterson, Phillips, Polk, Russell, Rush, Saunders, Settle, Simmons, Sloan, Smith of Anson, Smith of Wilkes, Spencer of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stephenson, Stewart, Stubbs, Swan, Thompson, Walkup, Ward, Willey, Williams, Wilson, Winburne, Winston.—86.

Those who voted in the negative are, Messrs. Conigland, Eaton, Faison, Forebee, Jarvis, Joyner, McCorkle, McKoy of Sampson, N. A. McLean, Mcbane, Murphy, Wright.—12.

Mr. Settle, of Rockingham, moved to take up his ordinance to recognize the just debts of the State and to prohibit the payment of the debts contracted or incurred in aid of the rebellion, which was agreed to.

Mr. Grissom, of Granville, offered a substitute. (His substitute proposes to refer the subject of the war debt to the people. It will be published hereafter.)

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, desired the telegram from the President of the United States be read, and placed upon the journal. It was read.

A discussion arose upon the telegram and the war debt (which is crowded out).

Mr. Boyden, of Rowan, moved to lay the whole subject on the table and called the ayes and nays thereon, and was sustained, and the Convention refused to lay on the table. Yeas 28—Nays 81.

Mr. Grissom's substitute being still under discussion at 10 o'clock, P. M. Upon motion of Mr. Warren, of Beaufort, the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

SIXTEENTH DAY.

OCTOBER 19TH, 1865.

The President called the Convention to order at 10 o'clock.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance introduced by Mr. Settle, in reference to the prohibition of the war debt came up as the unfinished business.

The substitute of Mr. Grissom, of Granville, was under consideration. (This ordinance proposes to refer the subject of the war debt to the people at the November election.)

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, was opposed to the substitute of the delegate from Granville (Mr. Grissom), since the receipt of the dispatch from the President, but was in favor of the original ordinance. He did so as the friend of the President, believing that President Johnson was a friend of North Carolina and was prompted in what he did, for her welfare.

Mr. Joyce, of Stokes, advocated the non-assumption of the war debt, while he was opposed to repudiation, and desired to pay every cent of the debt contracted prior to May, 1861. He would vote against all amendments, and support the original ordinance.

Mr. Eaton had not changed his views upon the subject since the receipt of the telegraphic dispatch. He was still opposed to any action by the Convention at this session upon the subject. It was useless for him to say that he meant no disrespect to the very distinguished and patriotic President of the United States, whose liberal policy towards the South met his warmest approval, and he believed him to be actuated by feelings of interest for the whole country. He thought however, the President had received false information in regard to the action of this Convention, and certainly could not be acquainted with the spirit of harmony which prevailed in regard to all questions relating to our federal relations. He accused no one of giving this false information, for like his friend from Rowan (Mr. Boyden) he did not know who did it, and made no conjectures. President Johnson was the executive head of a great republic, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and covering an area of territory more extensive than imperial Rome in the days of Augustus, with every imaginable conflicting interest. It was impossible that the President of so great a republic could be acquainted with all local matters of finance.

Mr. Jones of Rowan, said, delegates seemed alarmed in regard to the war debt. No member of this Convention had by word or implication said they were in favor of the assumption of the war debt. In an excited and contested canvass, he had promised the people of his County, that he would do all he could to keep this question out of the Convention, but it had been forced upon the consideration of this body by every means known to parliamentary rules.—Those who have done so, best know the motive which has actuated them. He desired this question not to be acted upon with hasty legislation. If forced to vote, he would certainly vote against the assumption of the war debt. This Convention had given every evidence of its loyalty and harmonious spirit in regard to their desire to return to the Union. He preferred the appointment of a committee to report upon the amount and character of the new debt, so that we could tell what part was properly the war debt and what for other purposes, so that at the next session we could act with all necessary lights before us. No good would result from hasty action, and certainly no detriment could possibly happen from prudent delay. Our loyalty would not be measured by a matter of mere finance, and he could not believe, that the door of the "old mansion" would be locked against us by our action on this subject. If any one loved the Federal Union more than he did, it was because the God of nature had created some individuals with more capacity than others, in this respect. He was as desirous as any man to re-establish our federal relations, but he did not believe that this would be subverted by hasty and imprudent legislation on this subject.

Mr. Grissom of Granville, by permission of the house withdrew his amendment. He thought the subject should be considered dispassionately. The spirit of the discussion last night was to be regretted. He endeavored to show then and believed now that there is no inconsistency between the views of the administration upon this subject heretofore, as indicated by letters from our State agent in Washington and now. It was advised that there should be no agitation of this subject—but there has been agitation—an able and protracted debate had sprung up and had gone to the country and excited great interest. This may account for the change in opinion which so disturbs the dreams of gentlemen.

Our position is a peculiar one. We have just ended a long and bloody struggle. The old ship of State, tossed to and fro for four years has just emerged from bloody waves and safely anchored in the harbor of peace. The white-winged messenger which so long roved over a sea of darkness, finding no rest for the sole of her foot, has at last returned to the ark of safety, floating on its stormy bosom, bearing in her beak the olive branch of peace.

The blood of many brave and gallant citizens enrich and their bones bleach on every battle field of the late unfortunate struggle from Big Bethel to Raleigh. Great national questions were submitted to the arbitrament of arms and decided against us. The general government through its legal representative, proposes terms of peace and reunion.

Every rank and class and condition in life, with every shade of partisan view and political opinion acquiesce in the decision and submit to the terms.

Why then is not our progress "homeward" rapid and our pathway to the "old mansion" smooth and flowery. Because there is a lion in our way. The great tide of Northern fanaticism and southern radicalism antipodes which unite, where parallels cease and extremes meet, threaten our safety.

In this hour of our extremity we see rising like Phoenix, from the surrounding ruins of political destruction, the strong armed and stout-hearted giant, Andrew Johnson, who with firmness and power says to this fell spirit, peace, be still; thus far and no farther.

Shall we support and sustain him, in his means and in his ends and be saved, or shall we desert him and be lost. This telegram is a part of the great programme for national and universal good. I choose to accept the interpolation of the distinguished and clear-headed delegate from Orange (Mr. Phillips). Interpret it as saying to North Carolina, "I am your friend, but do not overburden me—add no more fuel to the fierce fires that are burning on the altars of fanaticism threatening my overthrow and your destruction." This whole question is contained in a nutshell. Submit this question to the sovereign voice of the people and none can complain. This would be satisfactory to the administration and the people generally, as well as to our citizens.

PROCLAMATION,
BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,
TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A Convention of the people of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government; by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection, and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh, and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare, that an election will be held in the various Counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

- 1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."
- 2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."
- 3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.
- 4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.
- 5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective Counties.

The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State, ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualification of the electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to prejudice ill feeling and alienation towards the federal government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of the policy.

And the officers in the various Counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestations there should be, of hostility to the federal government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninety-ninth.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

Be it further ordained, That each member and voter shall be qualified according to the now existing constitution of the State. Provided, however, That no one shall be eligible to a seat or be capable of voting, who being free in all respects, shall not be before the twenty-ninth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, either have voluntarily taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Lincoln, with the purpose to suppress the insurrection and restore the authority of the United States, and thenceforth shall have observed the same, or shall not have taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Johnson bearing date twenty-ninth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and who moreover, shall not in either case be of those who are excepted from the Amnesty granted by any of the said proclamations, unless pardoned: but provided also, That all persons who may have preferred petitions for pardon, and who are deemed to have been pardoned if the fact of being pardoned shall be announced by the Governor, although the pardon may not have been received; and provided also, that the payment of a public tax shall not be required as a qualification of the voter in the elections in November next.
